

Biography Natalie Cox Singer Songwriter

Performances of singer songwriter Natalie Cox include the Women in Rock Concert at Black River Amphitheater, universities, public schools, special concerts & events. Television show and radio play examples include AIROS -American Indian Radio on Satellite; KMRS in Morris, MN; KLPR in Kearney, NE; KKFI in Kansas City, MO; KJHK in Lawrence, KS and internet stations. Television examples are Coffee with Cush, The Fusion Show, and the Nightly News on WIBW in Topeka, KS. Marvin Voth, Script Editor Lawrence, KS says, "Four things Natalie's music has passion, integrity, quality and commitment."

Shows of Natalie Cox in different cities are in the states of Minnesota, South Dakota, Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri include: University of South Dakota Earth Day Program in Brookings, SD; Kansas City Community College, Kansas City, KS for the Winona La Duke for vice-president and Ralph Nader for president Presidential Campaign,..., Stop the Coal Train Extravaganza in Mitchell, SD; Universities of Nebraska in Kearney, Lincoln and Omaha, The Bison Symposium in Lincoln, NE; Morningside College & June Jam in Sioux City, IA; Glasco and Miltonvale Public Schools, KS; the Kansas State Fair, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS; Douglas County Bank Senior Citizen Birthday Program in Lawrence, KS; and the Apple Fest in Kansas City, KS. Specific repeat performances of singer songwriter Natalie Cox include: Bambino's Restaurant, Lawrence, KS; Barnes and Noble, Independence, Missouri, Brown Bear, Lawrence, KS; Doc and Bruties Restaurant, De Soto, KS; Fountain Follies, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Lawrence, Public Library, Lawrence, KS; Stu's Midtown Tavern, Lawrence, KS; Toto's, Mission, KS; Uncle John's, Sioux City, Iowa; Maple Leaf Festival, Baldwin, KS; and Unity Church of Lawrence, KS. Nomer from the Explorer remarks from one of Natalie Cox's live shows, "An ardent environmentalist, Cox devotes several of her songs to messages of peace and earth preservation."

Johnny Winslow, national artist, joined her performance for the Kansas Advocacy and Protection Services. Winslow states, "Natalie: a very talented spirit-she has a style that is different." Particular recording work Natalie Cox has done as a musician and songwriter includes soundtracks for the Relaxation Series by Jim Haynes, creator of Kiemotion Therapy and two documentaries by Ironwood Films. Natalie Cox's discography includes: 1) It's a Soul Thing 2) Bear Some Soul 3) Higher Cause 4) Stand for the Solution.

Co-founder of Songwriter's Circle of Kansas City reviews about Bear Some Soul: "..., with her powerful vocals, she reminds me of the great singer/songwriter Buffy Saint-Marie. There is a good mix of serious, fun, folk, blues and alternative,..., all done with plenty of soul." Singer songwriter and recording artist, Natalie Cox is joined with BMI, a performing rights organization. As a recording artist, Natalie Cox is on the record label of The Orchard, also a distributor. Natalie Cox also performs for wedding processions, recessionals and teaches piano and guitar privately, holding a Bachelor's of Music Education Degree from the University of Kansas, whose major instrument is piano.

Lisa Hancock, from Cafe Acoustic raves, "Singer/Songwriter Natalie Cox moves from guitar to piano with the ease of sliding into a pair of much loved old jeans. Her strong vocals propel her melodies beyond earth and nature, which she writes of so eloquently. For a real treat ask her to sing the haunting melody 'This Mountain' a cappella."